MIMMO is a 40 year old construction worker who follows orders, even if it means breaking the bones of those who can't pay for their renovations. On these visits, it is his colleague, IL ROSCIO, who does all the talking, the threatening. Both men work for Mimmo's uncle, SANTILI. Santili has a son, MANUEL - a dangerously spoiled 30-year-old playboy. Il Roscio promises that he'll get him the sexiest girl he's ever come across - TANYA. Mimmo is in charge of picking her up, but Manuel postpones his birthday party in the meantime, leaving Mimmo in charge of hosting Tanya for the day. They fight at first, are complete opposites but a certain attraction starts growing between them. When Manuel hurts Tanya and humiliates her, Mimmo can't stand it and dishes out a severe beating to him.

From now on, Mimmo is on the run and his life will never be the same again...

MARIE'S STORY is based on real-life events that took place in France in the late 19th century.

Born deaf and blind, Marie Heurtin, aged 14, is incapable of communicating. Despite the advice of a doctor who believes she is "dumb", Marie's father, a humble artisan, cannot bring himself to commit her to an asylum. Out of despair, he goes to Larnay Institute near Poitiers, where nuns take care of young deaf women. Despite the Mother Superior's scepticism, Sister Marguerite, a young nun, takes this «wild little animal» under her wing and does everything she can to deliver Marie from her darkness. Sister Marguerite is challenged by many setbacks and the terrible temptation of discouragement, yet armed with her joyous faith and love for young Marie, she ultimately succeeds.

Three sisters fight their personal demons and those of a nation as they deal with the sale of their inherited property.

Israel 1995. With the peace process in full swing, Cali meets with her sisters, Darel and Asia, in order to sell the house they grew up in: a piece of paradise in Atlit. They quickly start quarrelling and old tensions resurface. Their parents, Zack and Mona, insist on having their say: four years after their deaths, they randomly appear to fix the electricity, offer marriage counselling and generally weaken their daughters' resolve regarding the house. To add to the confusion, a mysterious Palestinian boy appears in the property without explanation.

On the 4th November, Yitzhak Rabin's sudden assassination causes the sisters to further question their motives. What will become of this house in a country where the future holds no promise of peace?

Critically acclaimed Joachim Lafosse brings to the screen the Zoe's Ark controversy which made headlines in 2007 : a story about the limits of the right of interference.

Jacques Arnault, head of Sud Secours NGO, is planning a high impact operation : he and his team are going to exfiltrate 300 orphans victims of Chadian civil war and bring them to French adoption applicants. Françoise Dubois, a journalist, is invited to come along with them and handle the media coverage for this operation. Completely immersed in the brutal reality of a country at war, the NGO members start losing their convictions and are faced with the limits of humanitarian intervention.

On an isolated island, a group of teenage delinquents living in a youth center wake up to find themselves alone with no one to watch over them. After much partying, their supervisor appears out of nowhere, feverish and shaking. He suddenly attacks the students. They fight back and kill him accidentally, leaving them no other choice than to flee the crime scene. As they run away, they realize the island has been deserted. Or practically. The few adults they encounter on their journey all seem to be infected by a mysterious epidemic, making them violent and dangerous. It gradually becomes clear to them that children and adolescents aren't affected by this disease. In order to survive, they need to respect one golden rule : DON'T GROW UP. But one of them is turning 18 very soon...

Zucchini is an intriguing nickname for a 10 year old boy. Although his unique story is surprisingly universal. After his mother's sudden death, Zucchini is befriended by a kind police officer Raymond, who accompanies Zucchini to his new foster home filled with other orphans his age. At first Zucchini struggles to find his place in this strange, at times, hostile environment. Yet with Raymond's help and his new found friends, Zucchini eventually learns to trust, finds true love and at last a new family of his own.
