MATA

A film by Rachel Lang

Shooting · 2025 · Thriller
French

Wounded while on a clandestine operation in Niger, French secret agent MATA loses track of her colleague ANTOINE, captured on the spot. Upon her return, she is assigned to a counter-espionage mission in the Alps.

But a shadow hangs over this new assignment: that of INDIA, their contact in Africa, whom she met shortly before the ambush. Haunted by Antoine's captivity and convinced that her managers are hiding information from her, Mata embarks on a race against time, outside any official framework... at the risk of losing everything.

Maya and her dad, Michel Gondry, live in two different countries. In order to stay in touch, her dad asks her every evening, "Maya, give me a title". Based on her answer, he creates a short animated reply in which Maya is the hero. Michel Gondry brings to life a poetic and amusing journey that will have the little ones dreaming...and the grown-ups smiling.

In the early 1930s, painter Leonora Carrington, a rebel against social expectations, joins the surrealist movement and its iconic figures like André Breton and Salvador Dalí in Paris.

A whirlwind love affair with artist Max Ernst confronts her with her inner demons. During the war, Leonora flees to Mexico and finally empowers herself.

Today Leonora Carrington is one of the highest selling female painters worldwide, next to Frida Kahlo and Georgia O'Keeffe.
